Fall Newsletter, 2019

This newsletter is a little overdue, but it has definitely been on my heart to touch base with all of you. My name is Therese Marcak and I now serve as Office Manager at the Refuge. I will be handling most of the correspondence, phone calls and general office duties. I am looking forward to getting to know and serve you.

Feast Day of the Archangels (Sept. 29) -- We hope you can be with us Sunday afternoon as we sing the Divine Mercy Chaplet at 3:00 p. m., followed by the Rosary. Mass will be offered at 4:00 p.m. by Rev. Christopher Korang, a visiting priest from Ghana. Refreshments will follow. All are welcome for this joyous occasion.

Feast of the Holy Innocents (Dec .28) -- Join us for a morning filled with praying, singing, fellowship, and refreshments. A rosary will begin at 10:15 a.m., followed by joyful Christmas carols. Mass will begin at 11:00 a.m. with Bishop Brendan Cahill as the main celebrant. Refreshments will be served. All are welcomed.

Support through Prayer -- To the many Friends of Raphael's Refuge who surround this ministry with prayer, we are so very appreciative. All of the blessings and graces surrounding the mission of Raphael's Refuge would not be possible without your prayers and sacrifices. Know that you are in our prayers.

New Brochures -- Newly updated brochures are in! Many thanks to Jim Bishop for again helping with the process. We are now working on distribution. If you can help, please contact the office.

Email -- If we can email this to you, please send us your email address.

Thanks -- The grounds of the Monument have been shredded and the Chapel dusted and swept. We are truly grateful to those who helped with these important tasks.

At the Monument -- Work is underway to repaint and re-stain the wood at the on the exterior of the monument. If you are willing to volunteer your time and talent, please let me know.

Pews -- There are only 3 pews remain available for sponsorship with a $1,000 donation.

Special Services -- Our chapel is available for special services, related to our mission, organized by individuals or groups. If you are interested, just contact me.

A family and their friends from Katy arranged a small memorial service in honor of their babies.

Divine Mercy Chaplet -- Come pray and/or sing the Chaplet in our Chapel on Wednesdays at 3:00 p.m. By the end of the month, we hope to have a very special version of the Chaplet available that will provide musical support.

Sincerely,

Therese
